3. What Does This Policy Cover?

This Privacy Policy applies only to your use of Our Site. Our Site may contain links to other websites. Please note that We have no control over how your data is collected, stored, or used by other websites and We advise you to check the privacy policies of any such websites before providing any data to them.

4. What Is Personal Data?

Personal data is defined by the General Data Protection Regulation (EU Regulation 2016/679) (the "GDPR") and the Data Protection Act 2018 (collectively, "the Data Protection Legislation") as 'any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified in particular by reference to an identifier'.

Personal data is, in simpler terms, any information about you that enables you to be identified. Personal data covers obvious information such as your name and contact details, but it also covers less obvious information such as identification numbers, electronic location data, and other online identifiers.

Reflections Talent Agency: Privacy Policy

5. What Are My Rights?

Under the Data Protection Legislation, you have the following rights, which We will always work to uphold:

- a) The right to be informed about Our collection and use of your personal data. This Privacy Policy should tell you everything you need to know, but you can always contact Us to find out more or to ask any questions using the details in Part 14.
- b) The right to access the personal data We hold about you. Part 12 will tell you how to do this.
- c) The right to have your personal data rectified if any of your personal data held by Us is inaccurate or incomplete. Please contact Us using the details in Part 14 to find out more.
- d) The right to be forgotten, i.e. the right to ask Us to delete or otherwise dispose of any of your personal data that We hold. Please contact Us using the details in Part 14 to find out more.
- e) The right to restrict (i.e. prevent) the processing of your personal data.
- f) The right to object to Us using your personal data for a particular purpose or purposes.
- g) The right to withdraw consent. This means that, if We are relying on your consent as the legal basis for using your personal data, you are free to withdraw that consent at any time.
- h) The right to data portability. This means that, if you have provided personal data to Us directly, We are using it with your consent or for the performance of a contract, and that data is processed using automated means, you can ask Us for a copy of that personal data to re-use with another service or business in many cases.
- i) Rights relating to automated decision-making and profiling. We do not use your personal data in this way.

For more information about Our use of your personal data or exercising your rights as outlined above, please contact Us using the details provided in Part 14.

Further information about your rights can also be obtained from the Information Commissioner's Office.

If you have any cause for complaint about Our use of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office. We would welcome the opportunity to resolve your concerns ourselves, however, so please contact Us first, using the details in Part 14.

6. What Data Do You Collect and How?

Depending upon your use of Our Site, We may collect and hold some or all of the personal data set out in the table below, using the methods also set out in the table. Please also see Part 13 for more information about Our use of Cookies and similar technologies. We do not collect any 'special category' or 'sensitive' personal data. OR personal data relating to children OR data relating to criminal convictions and/or offences.

Third Parties whose content appears on Our Site may use third-party Cookies, as detailed below in Part 13. Please refer to Part 13 for more information on controlling cookies. Please note that We do not control the activities of such third parties, nor the data that they collect and use themselves, and We advise you to check the privacy policies of any such third parties.

We will only use your personal data for the purpose(s) for which it was originally collected unless We reasonably believe that another purpose is compatible with that or those original purpose(s) and need to use your personal data for that purpose. If We do use your personal data in this way and you wish Us to explain how the new purpose is compatible with the original, please contact Us using the details in Part 14.

If We need to use your personal data for a purpose that is unrelated to, or incompatible with, the purpose(s) for which it was originally collected, We will inform you and explain the legal basis which allows me to do so.

In some circumstances, where permitted or required by law, We may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent. This will only be done within the bounds of the Data Protection Legislation and your legal rights.

8. How Long Will You Keep My Personal Data?

We will not keep your personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the reason(s) for which it was first collected. We will keep personal data for as long as is necessary which is usually the life of Our relationship and up to a period of seven years after Our relationship has ended. We may however be required to retain personal data for a longer period of time to ensure We comply with legislative and regulatory requirements. We review Our retention periods for personal information on a regular basis.

9. How and Where Do You Store or Transfer My Personal Data?

I will only store your personal data within the UK. This means that it will be fully protected under the Data Protection Legislation.

Data is stored in a range of different IT places, including the email system and my Website database. I have implemented security measures such as a firewall to protect any data and maintain a high level of security.

I will store some of your personal data within the European Economic Area (EEA). The EEA consists of all the EU member states, plus Norway, Iceland and Lichtenstein. This means that your personal data will be fully protected under the EU GDPR and/or to equivalent standards by law. Transfer of data between the EEA and the UK are permitted without additional safeguards.

We will only store or transfer personal data in or to countries that are deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data. For further information about adequacy decisions and adequacy regulations, please refer to the Information Commissioner's Office. Your acceptance of this Privacy Policy shall be your consent permitting me to store or transfer data outside the EEA if it is necessary for me to do so.

Data security is of great importance to me, and to protect your data I have put in place suitable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure data collected through my Website. In addition, I limit access to your personal data to third parties who have a business need to know.

I have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where I am legally required to do so. By giving me your personal data, you agree to this arrangement. I will do what I reasonably can to keep your data secure.

Reflections Talent Agency: Privacy Policy

We have implemented security measures such as a firewall to protect any data and maintain a high level of security.

Notwithstanding the security measures that We take, it is important to remember that the transmission of data via the internet may not be completely secure and that you are advised to take suitable precautions when transmitting to Us data via the internet and you take the risk that any sending of that data turns out to be not secure despite Our efforts.

10. Do You Share My Personal Data?

We will not share any of your personal data with any third parties for any purposes, subject to the following exceptions.

In some limited circumstances, We may be legally required to share certain personal data, which might include yours, if We are involved in legal proceedings or complying with legal obligations, a court order, or the instructions of a government authority.

If any of your personal data is shared with a third party, as described above, We will take steps to ensure that your personal data is handled safely, securely, and in accordance with your rights, Our obligations, and the third party's obligations under the law, as described above in Part 9.

11. Can I Withhold Information?

You may access Our Site without providing any personal data at all. However, to use all features and functions available on Our Site you may be required to submit or allow for the collection of certain data.

You may restrict Our use of Cookies. For more information, see Part 13

12. How Can I Access My Personal Data?

If you want to know what personal data We have about you, you can ask Us for details of that personal data and for a copy of it (where any such personal data is held). This is known as a "subject access request".

All subject access requests should be made in writing and sent to the email or postal addresses shown in Part 13 clearly marking your correspondence as a subject access request.

There is not normally any charge for a subject access request. If your request is 'manifestly unfounded or excessive' (for example, if you make repetitive requests) a fee may be charged to cover Our administrative costs in responding.

We will respond to your subject access request within one month of receiving it. Normally, We aim to provide a complete response, including a copy of your personal data within that time. In some cases, however, particularly if your request is more complex, more time may be required up to a maximum of three months from the date We receive your request. You will be kept fully informed of Our progress.

13. How Do You Use Cookies?

Our Site may place and access certain first-party Cookies on your computer or device. First-party Cookies are those placed directly by Us and are used only by Us. We use Cookies to facilitate and improve your experience of Our Site and to provide and improve Our services. We have carefully chosen these Cookies and have taken steps to ensure that your privacy and personal data is protected and respected at all times.

By using Our Site, you may also receive certain third-party Cookies on your computer or device. Third-party Cookies are those placed by websites, services, and/or parties other than Us. Third-party Cookies are used on Our Site for analytical reasons. For more details, please refer to the table below. These Cookies are not integral to the functioning of Our Site and your use and experience of Our Site will not be impaired by refusing consent to them.

All Cookies used by and on Our Site are used in accordance with current Cookie Law.

Reflections Talent Agency: Privacy Policy

We use Cookies and similar technologies in order to distinguish you from other users. By using Cookies, We are able to provide you with a better experience and to improve Our Site by better understanding how you use it. Please read this Cookie Policy carefully and ensure that you understand it. Your acceptance of Our Cookie Policy is deemed to occur if you continue using Our Site. You may, if you wish, deny consent to the placing of Cookies; however certain features of Our Site may not function fully or as intended. If you do not agree to Our Cookie Policy, please stop using Our Site immediately.

Certain features of Our Site depend on Cookies to function. Cookie Law deems some of these Cookies to be “strictly necessary”. These Cookies are shown in the table below. Your consent will not be sought to place these Cookies, but it is still important that you are aware of them. You may still block these Cookies by changing your internet browser’s settings as detailed below, but please be aware that Our Site may not work properly if you do so. We have taken great care to ensure that your privacy is not at risk by allowing them.

The following first-party Cookies may be placed on your computer or device:
